Re: Krystle Thurston-Berry

To Whom It May Concern:-

I am pleased to offer this letter of recommendation for Krystle Thurston-Berry, who was the Senior Web Designer for Fairfield Residential since 2001.

Krystle is a well respected employee and coworker who brought many desirable attributes to our workplace. She is a reliable, highly-skilled web designer with excellent communication skills. Krystle was always willing to share her knowledge and assist in training and the development of her coworkers. She is a self-starter with excellent problem solving abilities and can be counted on not just to work hard, but to go the extra mile to ensure her work is completed in a timely and professional manner. Krystle is a conscientious, talented designer with a strong moral compass and represented our company in a positive light. Her attitude, effort and innovative spirit will be a strong asset to any company.
